New Deluxe Twin Room.

Jet Park Hotel Opens a New Wing of 43 Deluxe Rooms and 3 Apartments.

It was with great excitement and pride that we opened an additional 45 deluxe rooms and formally celebrated our 10th birthday on Saturday 26th July 2008. Contractors, suppliers, customers, and staff were thanked by owner Liz Herrmann and General Manager, Gary Kenny for their commitment to the hotel over the last 10 years. Liz commented on the growth of the hotel to its current 4-star standing and went on to explain the inspiration behind the interior design of the new rooms. Guests were entertained by Vodafone's official Polynesian Drummers and Dancers, singers Ray Woolfe, and the Yandall Sisters. Thereafter guests

The interior design of the rooms focuses on the use of a neutral colour palette which is enlivened through heavily textured linen, carpeting, wallpaper, throws, and upholstery. Colour is added with bright splashes of orange and green in the furniture, bed throws, and a feature cushion. A large original abstract artwork of acrylic & mixed media on canvas hangs in each room and further enhances and adds interest with its bright colours use of texture. The series of 48 paintings are entitled "The New Earth" and were painted by Sonja Herrmann whose art is also in the Cullinan Wing deluxe rooms and the Indaba Bar. The rooms all include a seating area with a low coffee table and an ergonomic desk chair together with a proper desk space for those who are working late. Full business centre facilities are available on the ground floor. The lobbies on the first and second floor are not merely thorough-fares but have been designed as a comfortable lounge area with large Tapa Cloth panels adorning the walls.

The 3 apartments have been designed to interconnect with a deluxe twin room if required. The apartments feature a large lounge/ dining area with home entertainment system, original artworks, and fully equipped kitchen. The bedroom leads off this room and has a luxuriously large on-suite bathroom with spa bath and shower. These apartments increase the number of rooms available at the hotel to 170 and are ideal for the business or leisure traveller who would like high quality accommodation conveniently located near Auckland Airport. We look forward to receiving your bookings in the months to come and to continuing to provide a great service and facilities to your clients for their Auckland Airport
